SPIRITUAL WARFARE IS NOT CULTURE WAR

The Church Before the Culture War

A FREE REFLECTION & JOURNAL COMPANION

TRUTH TO SIT WITH

The church bears witness to Jesus by becoming a different kind of human community.

Read alongside: Acts 2:42-47 | John 13:34-35

THREE OPEN QUESTIONS

01 What habits would make my church a credible sign of another way to live?

02 How do fear, status, or hierarchy shape the community I belong to?

03 Where might shared life, enemy-love, or generosity become a form of public witness?

No right answers. Let honesty, patience, and grace lead.

Make room for what is true

A CONTEMPLATIVE PRACTICE

Imagine a table where people separated by status, politics, and history share bread. Sit with the possibility of a community shaped more by the Lordship of Jesus than by the logic of empire.

Take your time. Silence is also a faithful response.
