SPIRITUAL WARFARE IS NOT CULTURE WAR

We Have Mistaken the Enemy

A FREE REFLECTION & JOURNAL COMPANION

TRUTH TO SIT WITH

Your neighbor is not your ultimate enemy. Resist evil without denying anyone's humanity.

Read alongside: Ephesians 6:12 | Matthew 5:43-48

THREE OPEN QUESTIONS

01 Whom have I treated as an enemy because of disagreement, fear, or difference?

02 Where have my attempts to defend faith made me less patient, truthful, or loving?

03 What would resistance to evil look like if I refused to dehumanize anyone?

No right answers. Let honesty, patience, and grace lead.

Make room for what is true

A CONTEMPLATIVE PRACTICE

Hold one person you strongly disagree with in mind. For two minutes, sit in silence and remember their humanity without excusing harm. Notice what changes inside you.

JOURNAL: WHAT IS RISING TO THE SURFACE?

Take your time. Silence is also a faithful response.
