TRUTH TO SIT WITH

The kingdom becomes visible wherever Christ-shaped love, solidarity, truth, and liberation take flesh.

Read alongside: Luke 4:18-19 | Matthew 6:10

THREE OPEN QUESTIONS

01 Where have I glimpsed God's reign in an act of feeding, welcoming, reconciling, or organizing?

02 What loyalties tempt me to confuse a party, nation, or movement with the kingdom?

03 How could my community embody hope and liberation without dehumanizing anyone?

No right answers. Let honesty, patience, and grace lead.

A CONTEMPLATIVE PRACTICE

Picture your street or neighborhood. Sit quietly with the prayer, "Your kingdom come." Imagine not a conquest to possess, but a gift to embody through love and liberating action.
